

Training Package Update!

The CPP07 training package (the current training requirement for national property services licensing) has been superseded by the CPP training package and currently shows as being both superseded and current, which means that the training for the CPP07 package can be trained until 30 September 2021.

Testimonial Highlight

“A very professional institution providing knowledge and support to people working in the real estate industry. The enrolment was swiftly done enabling me to quickly complete the course in time to renew my Real Estate Agent licence. “

- Kin Tong Chung, NSW CPD

Footy Colours Day

We are very proud to be supporting the Fight Cancer Foundation by helping to raise funds to assist kids with cancer continue their education.

Throughout the month of September, we will be wearing our favourite footy colours and will donate the following amounts to the Fight Cancer Foundation-

- $10 for every CPD course enrolment
- $20 for every Certificate of Registration course enrolment
- $50 for every Licence course enrolment

Email us a photo of your team in their Footy Colours to go into the draw to win free CPD for your entire office for the year! Photos can be emailed to footycolours@macdonaldeducation.com.au

QLD

The Residential Tenancies Authority QLD is introducing changes to the additional obligations of property owners/managers with regard to the installation and maintenance of smoke alarms at domestic dwellings.

Also, did you know that you can now lodge and pay your bond online? Visit the RTA website for more information.

ACT

Tenancy laws are changing from the 4th March 2020. Significant changes to tenancies include those relating to pets, rent increases, tenants making modifications and break lease fees. Once more information is released, we intend to create a CPD course to cover the changes in greater depth.

Some of the Macdonald Education Team adorned in their footy colours!

NSW

NSW Fair Trading has released details regarding the implementation of the real estate property industry reforms and is requesting public consultation until 2 October 2019.

Implementation is to be early 2020. Any changes will not impact on your current functions in the future through “grandfathering” of roles under transitional arrangements.

WA

Have you thought about your CPD points for this year yet? Just a reminder, that you have until December 31st to complete your CPD training. We have a range of courses available for just $89.

Course specials

NSW Business Agent Licence course for licensed Real Estate Agents - only 7 units to complete! Beat the licence reforms. Enrol today for just $795.00!

Left: our Stock & Station assessor, Bob, wearing his footy colours!

Right: our Queensland assessor, Darrell, sporting his footy colours!